Bornos

We will start our route with a slight increase in height in order to visit el Pozo de los Moros, a defensive bastion constructed by the French in the War of Independence which dominate the town of Bornos and the river Guadalete and in which we will gaze at fantastic views of the whole area.

After the mandatory stops to take photos we will start the descent toward the dam with fantastic views of the environment at all times until arriving at the engineer house that is next to the damn.

The final stretch is fantastic with views of the Grazalema mountain range in the background. We will then travel across the dam along the old greenway between Jerez and Almargen, passing through two tunnels and seeing excavated caves until arriving at the Bornos pier.

From here begins the monumental hike by visiting the different Bornos monuments like el Ayuntamiento (City Hall), the Church of St. Domingo de Guzman, the Ordoñez House, Castillo del Fontanar (Fontanar Castillo), Colegio de la Sangre (Blood School) and Convento del Corpus Christi (Corpus Christi Convent).

You can choose to visit the monuments and eat a bocadillo (a traditional Spanish sandwich) (you will have to take each one) or utilize this route in order to go eat at a restaurant. At 4 o’clock, the bus will leave bound for Carissa Aurelia where we visit till about 6 o’clock at which the bus will return to Seville.
