The two rivers

Level two, February 4th 2018. The two rivers is a beautiful excursion taking place on February 4th in the Sierra de Aracena, between the towns of Alajar and Santa Ana la Real. It’s 16 km long with 310 of ascent, making this a level 2 walk. For this excursion we are providing a bus from Seville, or you can use your own car and meet us at the walk’s start.

Rivera de Santa Ana

The Two Rivers is a beautiful route running along the banks of Alajar and Santa Ana, part of the Natural Park of Sierra de Aracena and Picos de Aroche. It is one of the most important protected areas of our countryside with meadows, streams, forests of oak, chestnut and cork, all of which we will walk through.

Bosque de Aracena

We start at 10 a.m. on the outskirts of Alajar at a spot called El Cabezuelo, next to the HU8105 road, 1 km from the town heading into Santa Ana, where the bus will leave us. El Cabezuelo is next to Barranco de la Tejonera, and the GPS coordinates are 37.869471, -6.680881. See the picture below.

Punto de encuentro

We start from El Cabezuelo by following the GR 46 Mina Concepción-Nava Hermosa trail, veering off to take the Rivera de Santa Ana path.

El Cabezuelo

Leaving the Rivera de Santa Ana we reach the Riscos de Levante, with its steep terrain, where the sound of the crashing water will be keeping us company and we’ll see beautiful waterfalls.
